

In the silence
between heartbeats, lies
the symphony of
our deepest
emotions.

In the abyss of
despair, hope is
the beacon that
guides us to the shores of
resilience.

The beauty of
vulnerability lies
in the courage to
expose the
rawest parts of our being.

In the silence of
night, the heart
whispers secrets
that only the stars
dare to hear.

Grief is the shadow that walks beside us, a silent companion in the journey of healing.
